

I feel that the wi no call list should be left alone. Before the no call list the telephone seemed th ring three to five times every evening. I enjoy the newfound piece and quiet. I feel that if I want to purchase something or donate money I will do it on my own accord.